

Warning to offender with respect to professional secrecy

I hereby inform you that you are protected by the rules of professional secrecy during clinical and therapeutic meetings.

There are two exceptions to this rule:

- Statements you make outside a clinical or therapeutic setting are not protected.
- Professional secrecy may be lifted if there are reasonable grounds to believe that an identifiable person or group of persons may be in imminent danger of death or serious injury.

You have the right to consult a lawyer.